

Digi International Withdraws from Embedded World

February 17, 2020

Digi will not attend in an effort to minimize the potential risk of the novel coronavirus

HOPKINS, Minn., Feb. 17, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Digi International® (NASDAQ: DGII) (www.digi.com) is canceling its plans to attend and exhibit at the upcoming Embedded World 2020 event, scheduled for February 25-27 in Nuremberg, due to growing concerns about the spread of the coronavirus.

"We have been closely following the coronavirus situation. This very difficult decision ultimately prioritizes the health and wellbeing of our employees, customers, partners and stakeholders," said Ron Konezny, President and CEO of Digi International. "Embedded World remains one of the annual highlights on the Digi calendar and we have full intention to participate in future shows."

Digi will continue to actively monitor this situation and follow the recommendations put forth for reducing risk and exposure by the World Health Organization (WHO).
