

Digi International Names New Controller and Human Resources Director

June 23, 1999

MINNEAPOLIS, June 23 /PRNewswire/ -- Digi International Inc. (Nasdaq: DGII) today announced that Mark D. Fandrich has joined the company as Controller. In his new position, Fandrich will manage the company's Accounting and Finance Departments which include general accounting, credit, financial and cost analysis, budget and reporting management. He reports to S. (Kris) Krishnan, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

Digi also named Tracy Roberts Director of Human Resources. Roberts, who also reports to Krishnan, is responsible for all areas of Human Resources worldwide including employee training and development, corporate staffing and development, compensation and benefits, as well as facilities services.

"These new additions to the Digi team provide a wealth of experience and knowledge that will help us carry out our strategic plans for continuing to improve and grow our business," said Krishnan. "We look forward to their contribution and participation in the company's success."

Fandrich, a Certified Public Accountant, was most recently Director of Finance at Larex, Inc. in St. Paul, Minn., and served as Manager of Financial Operations for the Enterprise Area at Andersen Consulting, LLP, in Minneapolis before that. He also held financial management positions with Tracker Software, Inc. and Valspar Corporation, also in Minneapolis.

Roberts, who brings more than 15 years' experience in human resources management, was formerly Director of Human Resources at Novartis Nutrition Corporation in Minneapolis. During her career, she spent more than 10 years in the high tech industry at Cray Research, where she held a variety of HR management positions.
